"Paul inspired me to continue to think about service to others in any way possible and do whatever I could just because it is the right thing to do. He cared about you and your family and met everyone where they were in whatever stage of life they were in."
- John Wintz

The purpose of PLF is to sustain the mission established by Paul Lammermeier - to support children and youth in Lima, Peru, with homes centered on family and Jesuit values.

"I am deeply grateful for Paul's life, and for his great influence on my life. He had a unique version of love for his students and his kids in Peru. He just loves uniquely well, especially effective in the challenging years of adolescence."
- Tom Green

“I considered Pablo more than my father who has raised us with love and with understanding. He was like a father and a mother. He did the laundry, the cooking, and told us about life. He was an example for us, and I want to raise my children the way Pablo raised us.”

- Alex

“Pablo was fully dedicated to the development of his children so they can achieve their goals and dreams. He did this with extraordinary love and understanding. He saw the casas not as residences but rather as homes where his children can live like siblings, help one another, and work hard to get a good education.”
– Martha Feller

PRIORITY 2 | BUILDING BRIGHT FUTURES

Help provide an equal opportunity for our young women.

“My recollection of Pablo is that he was my first experience at St. X of someone who didn’t just talk “man for others” but lived in a way that he showed you what that meant. Traveling to Peru with him in high school I got to see that in action. He showed me a path to living a life of service to others. He was a servant leader before there was servant leadership.”

– Tony Mazzei

"I give to the Paul Lammermeier Foundation because Paul was the truest example of a "Man for Others" that I have ever known. Many of us try to be men for others but don't achieve it. If I can help and contribute to a mission founded by someone truly motivated by being a "Man for Others" maybe that will help me be more of one as well."
